Last Saturday evening at dinner Mrs. Lucille Welch entertained Miss Grace Dow, Miss Alice Andrews, Doctor Elwin Witt Ames and Robt. Ames. Dr. Ames, with his family, lived in the Philippines for twenty years. During that time he served as an army officer. He is now established in Los Angeles and connected with several of the most prominent clubs in that city. His son Robert is a student at the university, southern branch, and a very talented young man. He has written several beautiful songs, both the words and music. His latest production, an operetta entitled "Babo," was presented to the public just recently by the students of the Polytechnic High School drama class. The writer considers that Mr. Ames shows unusual talent in this line and feels that if this operetta were produced by a good company it would be the hit of the season.

Miss Alice Andrews is one of Los Angeles' sweetest singers, and Torrance is soon to have a treat, for Miss Andrews will sing Sunday in Mr. Zellner's church. Miss Grace Don is a pianist and an accompanist of some note, and is quite prominent in Los Angeles musical circles. As usual, the Castle families came in for their share of the music and dancing.

The Torrance Tennis Club was entertained Monday evening by Miss Clara Barnett at the home of her parents on Andreo street. She made double effort to make the evening an enjoyable one, this being the last time she expects to entertain the club, as she leaves for Tucson, Arizona, on the 9th of June to become the bride of Mr. Don Baxter.

Mrs. Geo. Watson and Mr. Geo. Proctor were the winners of the first prizes, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rappaport won the two consolations. Delicious refreshments were served and the guests departed for home at a very late hour.

Rev. Carl L. Shuster of Portland, Oregon, presiding elder of the Oregon Conference of the Evangelical Church, preached in the Central Church last Sunday morning. Rev. and Mrs. Shuster were Sunday guests of Rev. Zeller and family. Both families were formerly associated in the Ohio Conference.

A jolly party composed of Mr. and Mrs. J. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Smith and children and Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Stevenson and children motored to Matillya Hot Springs and spent a delightful week end. The men went upstream fishing on Sunday morning and returned with ten fine trout.

Mrs. Joseph Stone, who is substituting for Mrs. May McKinley, entertained the Friday Afternoon 500 Club at her home on Gramercy street on Friday afternoon. She proved herself to be a most delightful hostess, and her refreshments were delicious.

Mrs. Harry McManus won the first prize, Mrs. Will Neeland the second and Mrs. W. C. Dolley the consolation.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Hodge June 2, 1922.

Miss Clara Barnett entertained the Torrance Tennis Club at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. H. Barnetts in Cota Ave., Tuesday evening. 500 was played, Mrs. Geo. Watson being awarded first prize, and Mr. Geo. A. Proctor, consolation. Dainty refreshments were served.

The Guild of the Central Church will hold an all-day meeting Thursday, June 1 at the home of Mrs. I. W. Barnett in Gardena. All those who desire to attend should be at the church at 10:00 o'clock. They will go via automobile.

Mr. Pottenger, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, has gone to Sacramento and will represent Torrance at the celebration of "the days of '49."

Mr. Fred Grauberger of Walnut Park has purchased two lots on Arlington avenue opposite the Central Church, and expects to build two modern houses.

Paul Beall of Gramercy avenue have a new heavy Studebaker Six.

Mr. Arthur Hodge made a business trip to Los Angeles Wednesday. Mr. Louis Smith spent Tuesday in Long Beach looking after Union Tool interests.

The next regular meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Von Hagen on Monday evening, June 26.

Mr. M. W. Conch of Butte is visiting his niece, Mrs. J. Stone. H. M. Tolson has a new Studebaker.

A number of the members of the W. B. A. of the Maccabees were visitors at the El Segunda Lodge last Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gourdier motored to Pasadena and Flint Ridge Canyon last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Smith were business visitors to Los Angeles on Wednesday.

Mrs. W. C. Haydon of Riverside, Cal., is spending a couple of weeks in Torrance as the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Zeller.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gilbert and Mr. and Mrs. David Barnard picnicked at Mt. Lowe Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis and daughter of Kernsville are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sack of Cota avenue. Mrs. Davis and Mr. Sack are cousins.

Mrs. Alfred Gourdier, Mrs. Ellis Harder and W. H. Dolley were Long Beach visitors Monday.

Mrs. Phoebe Sykes and son William were Wednesday evening guests of Los Angeles friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Chutes of Cota avenue left Tuesday on a two weeks' camping trip. They will visit San Diego and other points of interest.

Miss Mamie Davis has accepted a position in the Union Tool tabulating office.

Careful Mother—Johnny, if you eat any more cake you'll burst. Johnny—Well, pass the cake and get out the way.

H. V. ADAMS TALKS TO ROTARY CLUB

Banker From Lomita Makes Masterful After Dinner Talk

(From Lomita News Letter) Members of the San Pedro Rotary Club heard a wonderful talk delivered by H. V. Adams, cashier of the State Bank of Lomita, at their regular weekly luncheon at the LaBoheme Cafe.

Mr. Adams' subject was "The Supreme Need of the Hour." He began by saying that the world today does not face any new problems that previous generations have not had confront them, and that there has been practically no difference in this regard for at least two thousand years, and possibly much longer.

"Human nature is the same," he said, "and the same troubles that confronted our fathers are fundamental and the same that exist today, chief of which is the desire to get something for nothing."

Mr. Adams said the only way one can get help from another is for others to stir up in the breasts of those they wish to assist a desire to help themselves. One cannot lay in a hammock and become of fine physical perfection, but one must work to obtain such an end. No help can come to a man, according to Mr. Adams, except as he helps himself, and then he must not work for himself alone, but with a desire for service.

"The supreme need of the hour," said the speaker, "is not economic nor a larger navy, nor a tariff, although these may be important, but it is a revival of faith and a return to morality, which is its basis in religion. He said this sentiment does not come from a preacher, but it would be just as true if it did, but that it was written by the editor of the Wall Street Journal, published in New York City. He said it indicates that the big men of the country know the basic need of this country.

He put forth the idea that the best essential for credit is character, and that the fundamentals of prosperity are the ten commandments, coupled with the admonition to "Love thy God with all thy heart and thy neighbor as thyself."

In closing, he gave a portrayal of an allegory of the "Big Dipper," which is a masterpiece and was most heartily appreciated.—S. P. Pilot.

CASTLE APARTMENTS NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mahan motored to Palm Springs on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Parr spent Sunday with their aunt, Mrs. Fryer, at Long Beach. They also met their cousin, Mrs. Ruth Stearns, who motored from Bakersfield.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mahan motored to Hollywood on Tuesday to meet Geraldine Jane, four days old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Boys.

Coming events cast their shadows before. One of those sworn batchelors in Apt. 2 is making a lot of week end visits in Huntington Park lately.

Mr. J. J. Hem of Los Angeles visited his son, Russell Hem, on Sunday at the Castle.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Allen and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Allen, spent the day in Long Beach on Sunday.

Among the Torrance bathers at Redondo Wednesday were Mrs. J. R. Mahan, Mrs. Gene Allen and Mrs. Richard Truesdale. All reported the water fine.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. A. W. Meizner gave her daughter Eleanor a birthday party Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Rubadov of Cota avenue. The house was beautifully decorated with pink and green. Dainty baskets filled with candy and a wonderful birthday cake adorned the table. Prizes were given for games. Eleanor Richards won the hiding game and Charles Clark won "pinning the tail on the cat." Ice cream and cake were served to Eleanor and Betty Richards, Charles and Inez Smith, Muriel Gilbert, Ella Levy, Denny Rubadov, Peter Grimings, Wootzie and Eleanor Meizner.

GET A KEY RING FREE

The First National Bank of Torrance received a supply of fancy key rings Monday to give away to renters of safe deposit boxes. Your safe deposit box number is cut on the ring and in case you lose a bunch of keys the finder will know at a glance who the owner is and may identify same at the Bank.

C. E. NOTES

Last Sunday evening the Lomita was doubly honored when it shrouded society was doubly honored when it was visited by Long Beach district officers as well as Los Angeles county officers. Glen Moore, county C. E. intermediate, talked to the society on a life wholly given to Jesus Christ.

The girls of the society, under the supervision of Miss Mildren Trotman, prepared a delicious luncheon which was served on Miss Lela O'Quinn's lawn at six o'clock.

The Dodge won the automobile race this week, the Pierce-Arrow again being in for second place.

Rev. Clark will lead the meeting next Sunday evening.

On Friday next the regular monthly business meeting of the society will be held.

SURPRISE PARTY

A very delightful surprise was tendered Mrs. Roy Flood Saturday evening by Mr. Flood and friends. Thirty-six enjoyed guessing games, peanut hunt, dancing, illustrated music, and refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee. Mrs. Flood was the recipient of many beautiful presents. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Shriner, Mrs. Anna Burmaster, Kathryn and Henry Burmaster, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Flood, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gay, Mary Jessome, Glen Babcock, Marion Sprouls, C. Cotton, Connie Harden, Mr. and Mrs. Limebaugh and daughter Dorothy, Mrs. Sherman, Alice Foster, Wm. Wolks of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. McEwen of San Pedro, and Raymond Miller of the battleship Mississippi.

That Did It

When the school inspector walked in the class pulled itself together and determined not to make any mistakes this time.

All went well until the inspector picked on Jimmie.

"Now, my lad," he said, "what's the plural of mouse?"

"Mice," said Jimmie.

"Right," said the inspector, "and now, what is the plural of baby?"

"Twins," said Jimmie.—Exchange

Electrically Speaking

Guest—Make the toast and coffee right here on the table, Sam. These electric devices are great, aren't they?

Sam—Yes, indeed, de boss done say dat you was get'l all yo meals charged.

"I see," said the suburbanite, "that they have taken the 5:15 off this line. Do you miss it?"

"No, not as often as when it was on."

What's In a Name?

Tom—My wife's gone to the West Indies to spend a few weeks.

Jim—Jamaica?

Tom—Nope, she just went on her own accord.—Exchange.

"Now, my son," said the conscientious father, tell me why I punished you."

"That's it," blubbered the boy indignantly. "First you pounded the life out of me and now you don't know what you done it for."

"The real obstacle in the way of 'making both ends meet' is the persistent effort to gratify an automobile appetite on a wheelbarrow salary.—Memphis Commercial-Apple.

Considerate Mule

A negro was trying to saddle a fractious mule when a bystander asked: "Does that mule ever kick you, Sam?"

"No, suh, but he sometimes kicks where I've jes' been."—American Legion Weekly.

"The time will come," thundered the suffragette orator, "when woman will get a man's wages!"

"Yes," sadly muttered a printer on the rear seat, "next Saturday night."

"I hear you and your wife had some words last night."

"We did, but I never got around to using mine."—The American Legion Weekly.
